Gear 3's Associate Program is targeted at companies who have an on-going need for technical consulting and services. We have developed this easy, flexible and convenient program for providing you with professional technical services with your unique needs in mind. Rest assured your business's technology is in capable and competent hands- we have been providing professional technical services for over a decade.

With Gear 3's Associate Program you get:

- Personalized Service from Gear 3 Technical Team
- Flexible hours that fit your business needs
- You Chose the Amount of Technical Hours You Need
- Quarterly Technical and Program Evaluations
- No Travel Charges
- Reduced Rates
- Quarterly Term Commitment

Another benefit of being part of our Associate Program is that our consultants use each other as resources and always stay abreast of the latest technological advances. It is like having an IT staff operating your IT department. With Gear 3 Technologies, expert knowledge is only a phone call away.

During times of major upgrades or network re-configurations, we can assemble a group of top notch consultants to get the job done professionally and in a timely fashion. Give your IT department, as well as your business, the technological edge. Sign up with Gear 3's Associate Program today!
